REHEARSAL OF CHORUS TUESDAY

1,000 Trained Singers Will Gather For First Rehearsal.

The first rehearsal of the 1,000 trained voices which will lead in the grand chorus of more than 6,000 which will close the historical pageant of South Bend's centennial celebration will meet for its first rehearsal in the high school auditorium at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, Sept. 19, it is announced in a letter which was sent out yesterday by the directors of the pageant work, F. B. Barnes and Henry G. Roney, to all the ministers of St. Joseph county.

A strenuous day for the directors of the work of staging the historical pageant came to an end last night when their meeting with a joint committee of Redmen from South Bend and Mishawaka adjourned. At the meeting the discussion of the plans for the leading part which the Redmen are to take in the celebration was continued.

The first meeting in connection with the celebration held yesterday was the meeting of the directors of the Centennial association at which contracts for costumes, scenery and other necessities were let. Shortly afterwards Messrs. Barnes and Roney met with members of Rebekah lodge to complete arrangements for the part that organization is to play in the pageant. The meeting with the Progress club scheduled for 2 o'clock was postponed till next week.

At three o'clock, 750 children of the city schools assembled in the high school for the first rehearsal of the pageant chorus. One hour later, 250 more gathered for the same purpose. The rehearsal was conducted by Pageant Director Barnes, assisted by Miss Effie Harmon on the piano. Mr. Roney was introduced by Pageant Master Barnes, who explained to the children their part in the chorus and the great celebration. All the children displayed much interest in the work and the singing.

HOME PROJECT PRIZE WINNERS NOT DECIDED

Large Amount of Work Involved Delays Awarding of the Prizes.

On account of the large amount of work which those who are in charge of the agricultural exhibits at the fair are called upon to do, it will be impossible to decide the winners in many of the home project exhibits during the fair. John Borden, chairman of the agricultural department committee declares, however that the exhibits will be examined immediately after the fair and the awards which are in each case a trip to Purdue university during Farmers' week in January, will be decided. The special prizes in connection with the projects work were awarded yesterday. J. Mangus and Jerome Sholly won the O. E. Lang bicycle and the trip to Purdue offered by Major Bros., respectively, in the pig feeding project.

PAGEANT MUSIC IS NOW READY

Six Songs Prepared Especially for the Occasion Have Been Printed.

The first copies of the musical sheet that will be used in the historical pageant were brought from the printers Friday. The music for the celebration has been done up in an attractive booklet of 29 pages. Teachers of music that looked over the little collection of six songs, two of which were written especially for the occasion, were strong in their praises of the work. The booklet will be placed in the hands of all those who take part in the great chorus of thousands of voices which will be the grand finale of the pageant and can also be secured by all others interested in the celebration.

The pamphlet contains on the first page a diagram of the living sunburst of national colors, which will be formed by the 7,500 singers and actors who will make up the grand chorus, and several paragraphs descriptive of the chorus.

Inside the booklet are the six songs or hymns which will be sung by the chorus. These are: Keller's "American Hymn," "Indiana! Blessed Homeland," a song written and set to music by Pageant Director Henry B. Roney especially for the occasion; "In the Light of God," a memorial hymn dedicated to the memory of the St. Joseph county pioneers; "Beyond the Smiling and the Weeping," another in memorial hymn dedicated to James Whitcomb Riley; "Old Glory," the celebrated poem of James Whitcomb Riley, which has been set to music especially for the occasion by Mr. Roney, and finally "The Star Spangled Banner."

The great climax of the celebration will be reached when the audience joins the chorus in singing the chorals of "Old Glory" to the tune of "Old Hundred" amid the booming of cannon and the shouts of the redmen.

FORM FIRST SECTION OF MARCHING CLUB

At a meeting of the Young Men's Republican club held in republican headquarters Friday night the first section of the Plaineau Marching club was organized. Forty members have been enrolled in this section, which will be composed of young men. There were 150 present at the meeting, according to figures given out by Lenn J. Oare and Albert Slick combined.

Next Tuesday night another meeting will be held, when it is expected the organization will be completed. Five sections, to be composed of young men, Hungarians, Poles, Negroes and Mishawakans, will probably be organized. Officers of the club were not elected at Friday's meeting.

Six or eight automobiles have been engaged by the club to distribute literature and bills throughout the county, Saturday.

TO CHANGE LEEPER DRIVE TO AVOID TREES

Leeper park driveway will be changed somewhat in order to eliminate a big willow tree which now stands in the road, according to an announcement made by the park board at its meeting Friday night. The driveway will swing out and around the tree.

This tree has always been of great annoyance to coasters on the hill during the winter time, several sleds striking it with disastrous results to their riders.

Refuse and unsightly objects will be dredged from the river under the south span of the Navarre place bridge, making the spot more presentable.

NEW TEACHERS ARE APPOINTED

As directed at the last meeting of the board of school trustees Supt. J. F. Nuner has added new teachers to the teaching staff of the city schools in order to relieve the congested conditions existing in the schools. Misses Marie Meyer, Dorothy Chard and Lena Smith have been appointed to the faculty of the Oliver school, and Miss Gladys Waters has been added to the teaching staff of the Lafayette school.

When the work on the wooden portable building that is being built at the Linden school is completed several teachers will be added to the faculty of that school.

MOTHER IN EAST SEEKS FOR MISSING SON HERE

A broken hearted mother in Lowell, Mass., is awaiting word from her son, who left that place about three years ago to come to South Bend and has not been heard from since August 14, of this year.

Chief of Police Kerr is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. Battle Gallagher of Lowell asking help in an effort to locate Morris Johnson, formerly of that city. According to the letter Johnson left Lowell about three years to come to South Bend and work in a plow and farm machine factory.

Until last August he had corresponded regularly, but since that time no word has been heard from him. His mother says that he has been subject to fainting spells and she believes that he has been stricken and is unable to tell his name or address.

He is described as being tall and of a light complexion, a sober and hard worker with quiet habits.
